How to get around Minnesota’s open meetings laws — in three easy steps

BY PETER CALLAGHAN | 03/19/10

In honor of national Sunshine Week, a handy guide for making decisions in secret.
It's like flipping between two different channels.

I think that's dead on. And here we are, back to Trump and past Democratic positions.

Nicholas Confessore 10:27 PM
No one is doing more to knock Trump out of this primary than the moderators. And the questions are perfectly fair and on-point. But the real heat is not coming from the candidates, who with the exception of Paul seem reluctant to go after Trump.

Maggie Haberman 10:28 PM
Yes, other than Rand, no one wants to go at him.

And Jeb just denied calling him an epithet.

DEARBORN, Mich. (AP) — Ford Motor Co. (F) on Tuesday reported first-quarter profit of $924 million.

The Dearborn, Michigan-based company said it had net income of 23 cents per share.

The results missed Wall Street expectations. The average estimate of 11 analysts surveyed by Zacks Investment Research was for earnings of 25 cents per share.

The automaker posted revenue of $33.9 billion in the period, also falling short of Street forecasts. Seven analysts surveyed by Zacks expected $34.2 billion.

Ford shares have increased roughly 3 percent since the beginning of the year, while the Standard & Poor's 500 index has risen slightly more than 2 percent. The stock has increased nearly 1 percent in the last 12 months.
